

KLS, Gogte Institute of Technology, Belagavi
Department : Centre for Language and Communication Studies
E- learning
Assignment-2

30th March 2020

Instructions:

1. All students have to complete this assignment and submit it in the first class on reopening.
2. Defaulter(s) has/ have to submit in writing the reason for not completing the assignment duly signed by the parent.
3. Assignment should be compulsorily handwritten.
4. Write your Name, Roll. No, Division on the top right corner of the paper/assignment without fail.

IDIOMS AND PHRASES

An special expression whose meaning is not deducible from the literal meanings of its words, but uses a peculiar meaning to a given language.

Example: one is done for you.

Break a leg :: to wish a good luck.

Vinay: "Rakesh break a leg".(when Rakesh is about to perform on a stage Vinay wishes him the luck)

Direction: Some frequently used idioms and phrases are given below. Use them in your own sentence to understand the distinctive meanings/ infer. One sentence for each example.

1. A dead letter.
2. Bad blood.
3. Crack a book.
4. Donkey work.
5. Eat humble pie
6. Fool's paradise.
7. Give someone a bird.
8. Have a big mouth.
9. In black and white.
10. Jam on your face.
11. Kangaroo court .
12. Lion's share.
13. My hands are full.
14. No body's fool.
15. Over the moon.
16. Play fast and loose.
17. Quiet as a cat.
18. Read between the lines.
19. Salad days.
20. Talk turkey.
21. Your call.
22. Zip your lips.

NOTE: 1. Don't submit/send soft copy, need to submit handwritten hard copy on reopening.

2. No, two students should have the same responses / examples.